The NEA, MSTA and MCEA Funds for Children and Public Education collect voluntary contributions from Association members and use those contributions for political purposes, including but not limited to, making contributions to and expenditures on behalf of friends of public education who are candidates for federal, state and local offices. Contributions to the Funds are voluntary, making a contribution is neither a condition of employment nor membership in the Association, and members have the right to refuse to contribute without reprisal.

I understand that I am making a joint contribution to the Funds for Children and Public Education and the contribution will be distributed evenly among the NEA FCPE, the MSTA FCPE and the MCEA FCPE.

Contributions or gifts to the NEA, MSTA, and MCEA Funds for Children and Public Education are not deductible for federal income tax purposes.

Federal law requires us to use our best efforts to collect the name, mailing address, occupation, and the name of employer for each individual whose contributions to the NEA Fund for Children and Public Education aggregate in excess of $200 in a calendar year. Federal law prohibits the NEA Fund for Children and Public Education from receiving donations from persons other than members of the NEA and its affiliates, and their immediate families. All donations from persons other than members of NEA and its affiliates and their immediate families will be returned forthwith.
